The perfect place to put down roots

Known as the ‘Capital of the Cotswolds’, Cirencester’s mix of rural English living and connections to cities, towns and great schools make both convenient and charming in equal measure.

Being located on the fringes of the Cotswolds is more than enough to entice most people to Cirencester – with the town’s authentic community spirit adding to the lasting appeal. The beautiful surroundings make Cirencester ideal for anyone seeking out a slice of quintessential England to settle in.

While most of us love the idea of a waking up to a rural backdrop every morning, we often assume that comes with the cost of sacrificing the needs for modern living – but that isn’t the case when it comes to Cirencester.

Living in Cirencester means you’re only just over an hour away from the big cities of Bristol and Oxford, keeping you very well connected. Kemble train station is 6 miles away and provides services to Swindon, Cheltenham and London Paddington in around 90 minutes.

By car, Cheltenham Warwick, Bristol, Bath and Gloucester can be easily accessed – with Bristol Airport offering both domestic and international flights for travel further afield.

Shopping in the town includes a mix of well-known chain stores such as Boots, WH Smith and Argos alongside a buzzing collection of independent boutique shops. For eating out, the most popular choice in the town is Jesse's Bistro – awarded two AA Rosettes and serving food made with locally sourced ingredients.

For families with children, there's a choice of both 'Good' and 'Outstanding' Ofsted rated primary schools – with both Cirencester Kingshill School and Cirencester Deer Park School achieving a 'Good' Ofsted rating for secondary education.

Our Development Partner, The Bathurst Estate

Long considered one of the country's most beautiful privately owned parks, and with 300 years of stewardship, The Bathurst Estate upholds the highest sustainable principles. The estate provides green space, woods, bridleways and historic parkland for the community to explore and enjoy. Throughout the 15,000 acres of The Bathurst Estate, the vision of securing a sustainable and progressive future is of the utmost importance, keeping the area and its people thriving.

From creating green wildlife corridors to providing affordable housing, The Bathurst Estate's mission to ensure a safe, sustainable and beautiful environment continues moving forward.

Whether you're looking for a home with more space, a home that's more manageable – or you want a new home in Cirencester with more eco-credentials, you'll find it at The Steadings.
